PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior Product Manager with 9 years in product, the last 6 in checkout, payments and patient billing. Talks to merchants weekly, finds where shoppers drop off in the funnel and proves the lift with A/B tests. Replaced Larkfield's three-step checkout with one page, raising completion from 61.0% to 66.8% within 3 months.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Manager March 2023 – Present

Larkfield Commerce (Chicago, IL)

- Replaced the three-step hosted checkout with one page after SQL funnel analysis found the worst drop-off; completion rose from 61.0% to 66.8% within 3 months (est. +$31M annualized merchant sales).
- Ran weekly A/B test reviews with data science and engineering for 38,000 ecommerce merchants: 46 tests in 2025, 19 shipped winners, and mobile checkout conversion up 12% YoY.
- Cut failed payments via smart-retry rules for soft-declined cards with payments engineering, lifting payment success: authorization rate 88.4% to 90.9% since Q1 2025 (est. $4.2M/yr recovered).
- Wrote the PRD for the embeddable payment form API with developer relations; 1,900 merchants integrated since its Q2 2025 launch, with median integration time cut from 11 to 3 days.
- Launched digital wallets incl. Apple Pay on the hosted checkout page in April 2024, writing a launch plan and enablement for 40 sales and support reps; wallets hit 27% of mobile orders in 2 months.

Product Manager June 2020 – February 2023

Wrenfield Health (Chicago, IL)

- Found via SQL and Looker analytics that 41% of patients quit booking at the insurance step; redesigned it with card scan and a skip option, cutting drop-off to 27% within 3 months of launch.
- Launched online bill pay across 120 clinics in 2022; patients paying their balance online rose from 12% to 38% within 4 months, and clinics processed $14M through it that year.
- Wrote 9 PRDs for the 2022 roadmap, which spanned 3 teams (scheduling, billing, notifications), drawing on 60 patient and clinic-staff interviews in 2021.

Associate Product Manager July 2017 – May 2020

Penhallow Media (New York, NY)

- Ran the metered paywall test in 2018, lifting new subscription starts 19%, from 3,100 to 3,690 per month.
- Grew the newsletter from 410,000 to 640,000 subscribers in 2019 by testing 14 signup placements with 4 engineers and 2 designers.
